Book Review: Capitalism's Last Stand: Deglobalisation in the Age of Austerity. In Capitalism's Last Stand, Walden Bello seeks to emphasize the ever more pressing need to engage in a radical process of 'deglobalization'. Taking in revolutions and protests, the place of China's economy in the world, and Europe's 'tragic spiral', those who are concerned with a just society and a more balanced distribution of global financial resources may find what they are looking for, writes ...
