Four Blood Moons: Something Is About to Change by John ...

John Hagee is a latecomer to the four blood moon prophecy party. In his 2013 book Four Blood Moons: Something Is About To Change he traces the beginning of his interest in the topic to the previous year when he met Mark Biltz, the originator of the theory in 2008. Biltz's theory states that because four lunar eclipses in a row (or a tetrad) falling on four Jewish holidays in a row "won't happen again for hundreds of years," it must be God trying to tell us something is going to happen.

Four Blood Moons: Something Is About to Change

Supposedly the lunar eclipses are prophetic "blood moons" if there is a sequence of four total total lunar eclipses with no intervening partial lunar eclipses. The moon turning to blood is in the Bible in Joel 2, Acts 2 (quoting Joel), and Revelations 6. The "four lunar eclipses in a row" bit is NOT in the Bible.

Essentially, the premise is that when there have been four blood moons that corresponded to significant Jewish holiday and with a full eclipse of the moon somewhere within the sequence of the blood moons, there has been some event of great significance to Israel that has occurred. This particular combination of events is apparently quite rare.

Four Blood Moons: Something is About to Change: Hagee ...

The blood moon prophecies are a series of prophecies in the Bible preached by Christian preachers John Hagee and Mark Biltz, which state that a tetrad (a series of four consecutive lunar eclipses—coinciding on Jewish holidays—with six full moons in between, and no intervening partial lunar eclipses) which began with the April 2014 lunar eclipse is the beginning of the end times as described in the Bible in the Book of Joel, Acts 2:20, and Revelation 6:12.
