Yamaha XJ 900S Diversion Not Yamaha's most glamorous model, the XJ900 Diversion is nevertheless a long-running, popular bike. First introduced to replace the XJ900 in 1994, it is an excellent budget tourer. The 892cc air-cooled engine is dated, but has proved its economy and reliability since first appearing in the 1985 XJ900.

Tragically the Diversion is the last of the XJ line of budget, four-cylinder shaft-drive bikes. By no means exciting as a performance motorcycle and perhaps doomed to be regarded as dull, the Divi has persevered, soldiering on through the H, M and N models with very little in the way of change.

Yamaha XJ900 Diversion Motorcycle Review

Yamaha XJ900F Its four-cylinder motor is air-cooled and carburetted, with eight-valve heads and shaft final drive. Putting out around 85bhp, it sounds like a recipe for misery, but is actually a really satisfying ride.
